Reds Strike At Viipuri Gates

Mannerheim Line Broken as Russians Capture Fortress of Koivisto.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, June 19 — Soviet field dispatches declared today that the Red army had smashed forward to the threshold of Viipuri, key city in southern Finland, after breaking the Mannerheim line and capturing Koivisto fortress at the mouth of Viipuri bay.

Farther inland on the Karelian isthmus the Russians were reported to have driven two and a half miles past the Mannerheim line in the Murila sector.

Right Wing Advances

While the Red army's left flank had made the most progress along the Gulf of Finland, dispatches said the right wing on the opposite side of the isthmus now was advancing along lake Ladoga, capturing numerous points.

Gen. Leonid A. Govorov's Leningrad forces which launched the offensive nine days ago appeared to have broken the back of the Finnish army after piercing the enemy's three lines in the defense of Karelia and prospects for an early complete victory over Finland seemed bright.

The Russians' quick success was attributed largely to tremendous artillery barrages which pulverized Finnish positions. Front dispatches disclosed that the Katiusha, the Red army's secret gun, was used for the first time in Finland in the present drive.

The Red army reached the Mannerheim line Saturday, three days after breaking the Raivola-Yoki line, and breached the old Mannerheim forts yesterday in a single swift rush.

Marion Marks Up Hottest June 18 in Last 36 Years

Marion residents Sunday experienced their hottest June 18 in 36 years as the mercury rose to 96 degrees.

This was only four degrees less than the highest temperature ever recorded in Marion during June. In June, 1911, a temperature of 100 degrees was reached.

Marionites seeking relief from the sultry weather thronged to Crystal Lake park, where upwards of 2,000 persons registered Sunday. A majority of these were swimmers.

Several prostrations were reported in Ohio and at least two persons drowned as bathers flocked to streams and beaches over the week-end, the Associated Press reported.

A new state record for the hottest June 18 was set at Wilmington where a temperature at 101½ degrees was recorded. The previous all-time high for the month was that recorded JuJne 28, 1934.

ALLIED VICTORY THIS SUMMER SEEN POSSIBLE

Churchill in Mexican Embassy Speech Says Full Success May Come Soon.

By The Associated Press

LONDON, June 19—Prime Minister Churchill, in a speech delivered at the Mexican embassy four days ago and permitted to be published only today, said the months of this summer may "bring full success to the cause of freedom."

He said the invasion of Normandy was a great tactical surprise to the Germans who did not know it was coming until they saw the ships and "it may be that events will occur in the next few months which will show us whether we are soon to be released of the curse which has been laid upon us by the Germans."

Reds In Full Accord

The invasion was launched "in full accord" with the Russians and the decisions reached at Teheran, he added, "and although the execution of the plans adopted there is far from being complete, it is being steadily unrolled, and the months of this summer may by the victories of this Allied campaign bring full success to the cause of freedom."

Touching on political aspects of the war, the prime minister said efforts were being made "to achieve permanent cooperation and to build up an organization which after this war will strengthen the bands between all our nations and will succeed in preserving peace."

"We look forward to the future in which the rights of small nations will be upheld and protected and in which the strong will use their power under the law for the protection of the weak."

Whether the Germans are defeated "this year or next, the British and American peoples will never falter or withdraw their hands from the task which they have undertaken," he declared. "Together with our Allies we will go on to the end, and the end will be the more terrible for our foes the longer their struggle continues and the longer this war is protracted."

Referring to the inconvenience caused the diplomatic corps by restrictions on communications to preserve secrecy Churchill said, "the lives of a million men may be engaged now on both sides" of the present struggle in France.

NAZIS CONTINUE ROCKET ATTACK

By The Associated Press

LONDON, June 19—Germany's rocket bomb assaults on southern England continued for the fifth successive day as a number of the fire-spitting, jet-propelled robot planes zoomed across the coast just after daybreak today.

Intermittent activity was reported over the same area during the night, with some resultant casualties and damage, though the attacks did not seem as heavy as the previous night.

The element of newness attached to Hitler's latest "secret weapon" was wearing off rapidly, however, and British defenses against these "blind bombs" were taking shape.

All over southern England large reinforcements of anti-aircraft guns are being moved to special spots in efforts to explode the rocket bombs in the air as near the coast as possible.

Good visibility since the Germans unveiled their weapon last Thursday has made it possible to pin-point the launching grounds, generally believed to be in the Pas De Calais area.

It now appears the robots are two types. The smaller has a speed of 200 to 230 miles an hour, while the other with larger wing span travels perhaps 400 miles per hour and has greater explosive power.

The Nazis even went so far as to suggest the "new weapon" might be turned against the United States, one Berlin broadcast saying:

"It is to be regretted that only southern England has so far been affected by the new pilotless plane. We hope that New York will soon get a taste of the new reprisal weapon as a punishment for deliberate air crimes in Europe and East Asia."

CRASH KILLS TWO

CLEVELAND, June 19 — Injuries received in a collision of an automobile and a rapid transit train in suburban Shaker Heights Friday proved fatal today to Mrs. Howard T. Karsner, 63, wife of the head of Western Reserve university's Institute of Pathology. Mrs. Otto Miller, 67, wife of the senior partner of Harden, Miller and Co., stockbrokers, died Saturday of injuries received in the crash.

Today's Fifth War Loan Scoreboard in Marion County

Goal	$3,365,000.00
Sales Saturday	26,736.50
Previous Sales	219,091.50
Total to Date	245,828.00

Sales to date include $203,569 in E bonds, 24 per cent of the county's $819,000 E bond quota.

COUNTY GAINS ON E QUOTA

Fourth of Total Sold During First Week of Fifth War Loan Drive.

Approximately one-fourth of Marion county's E bond quota was reached during the first week of the Fifth War Loan drive, records at the drive headquarters show.

Saturday sales included 207 E bonds totaling $21,862.50, giving the county nearly 25 per cent of its $819,000 E quota, the one on which drive officials are centering their attention during the first two weeks of the campaign.

"This represents a good response, but we'll have to do even better to put the drive over the E quota, because the first week has brought in much of the cream," Elmer J. Schoenlaub, chairman of the county War Finance committee, said this morning.

He joined Robert E. White, Fifth War Loan chairman, in an appeal to the public in general to respond as generously as possible when bond solicitors call. "The E sales so far have come from 4,543 persons, and we know many more thousands should buy E bonds, but the longer the drive goes the harder the selling job will be, so we're asking everyone to buy to the full extent of their ability when a bond solicitor calls," Mr. White said.

The residential campaign, under way since Tuesday night, tapered off somewhat Saturday night with the civilian defense organization turning in 46 transactions totaling $3,168.75. They are scheduled to wind up their phase of the drive tonight and tomorrow night, with air raid sirens sounding at 7 o'clock both nights.

The overall picture shows sales totaling $245,828 to individuals so far in this drive in E, F and G bonds. This represents 7.3 per cent of the $3,365,000 goal, but does not take into consideration any of the sales to businesses and corporations, which will not be counted in until June 26.

Bard Promoted To Navy Undersecretary

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 19—Ralph A. Bard, now assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be undersecretary.

The nomination to put Bard into the spot left vacant when James V. Forrestal moved up to succeed the late Frank Knox was sent to the senate.

Bard's elevation leaves vacant the post of assistant secretary, and Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said Mr. Roosevelt would await a recommendation from Forrestal before filling that post.

YANKS FIGHT WAY ACROSS SAIPAN ISLE

Reach Half-Way Mark in Push Toward Principal Harbor and Naval Base.

By The Associated Press

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, PEARL HARBOR, June 19—American soldiers and Marines, fighting their way through hot canefields halfway across Saipan island in the Marianas after repelling Japanese assaults by tanks and by landing craft, drove down toward the island's principal harbor and naval base at Magicienne bay today.

Slightly more than 100 miles southward, American warships bombarded Guam heavily for the first time in the war. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, in announcing this former American base had been shelled last Thursday gave no intimation as to whether an invasion was in prospect.

New Guinea Base Hit

Fifteen hundred miles to the south, just below the equator, Mitchell medium bombers and escorting P-38 fighters temporarily neutralized Japan's last remaining effective airbase in New Guinea. They destroyed 50 enemy planes at Sorong and sank five enemy merchantmen and half a dozen smaller vessels.

Nimitz also announced Army Liberators and Navy Venturas bombed Matsuwa, Paramushiro, Shimushiri and Shumushu islands in the Kurile chain Wednesday and Thursday and shot down one of 34 intercepting planes.

Radio Tokyo reported hundreds of bombers and fighters attacked Iwo island, in the Kazan group 750 miles northwest of Saipan, Friday. American planes raided the Kazan and Bonin islands for the first time Wednesday, destroying 47 Japanese planes and sinking or damaging more than a dozen ships or small water craft.

The Saipan beachhead established by Marines, with the support of Army infantry units, at last reports extended from Agingan point on the southwestern tip, where the Americans landed last Wednesday, five and a half miles up the west coast almost to Garapan, the island's largest town.

Japs Attack With Tanks

Japanese units strongly counter-attacked with tanks before dawn Friday, after the tanks had pushed north and east for two miles and captured the coastal village and airstrip of Charan-Kanoa, and the inland town of Hinashishu, more than halfway across the island.

Holding staunchly, the Americans forced the enemy back, inflicting heavy casualties and knocking out 25 Nipponese tanks.

Early Saturday the Japanese attempted new tactics, a landing assault south of Garapan.

Headquarters said the attempt was smashed and 13 troop-laden enemy barges destroyed. There was no indication whether the barges came from Saipan, where an estimated 30,000 Japanese are entrenched, or from Tinian island three miles to the south.

American warships shelled the island in support of the invasion. The fighting line at last reports skirted the western edge of the 3,600-foot Aslito airstrip and was less than three miles from Magicienne bay on the east coast.

Large Forces of U. S. Bombers Hit Rocket Bases and France

By The Associated Press

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 19—U. S. heavy bombers 500 to 700 strong hamered Hitler's rocket-bomb launching area at Pas-De-Calais today as more of the pilotless explosives hurtled over into England, and other big allied planes struck heavily at German air bases in southwestern France.

Fighter-bombers, attacking at the rate of one a minute, drove home a three-ply assault in direct support of the invasion forces. One wave pounded trapped German forces in northern Cherbourg peninsula. Another battered communications routes to the southeast over which the Nazis were trying to reinforce their armored divisions in the Tilly-Caen sector. The third stream bombed the area north of Paris, disrupting enemy reinforcement lines.

Follow RAF Night Raid

The American heavy bombers slashed at rocket installations after a night assault by the RAF, in which one plane was lost, and a raid in the same area Sunday by 250 big U. S. bombers.

A rare stretch of bad June weather still was hampering air operations.

Fighter-bombers blasted to pieces one concentration of several hundred Germans. Col. Donald Blakeslee's U. S. Mustang procession of citizens out for a group saw what looked like a ride in horse shays, but when the pilots "buzzed" the cavalcade for a closer look German soldiers dived for cover. The ammunition-loaded "shays" went sent up in a string of firecracker explosions while horses scampered across the fields.

More than 1,300 American heavy bombers hammered oil refineries and storage plants in the Hamburg area and three enemy airdromes in northwest Germany yesterday, while 250 other heavy bombers pounded the Pas De Calais area.

Three Sided Air Battle

The Germans hurled more winged bombs at southern England today, carrying their attack with these new weapons into its fifth day.

Dewey Sets Up Headquarters as Gov. Bricker Gains Ground

Board of Strategy Said To Be Ready To Announce New Yorker Will Accept Nomination.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 19—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's board of strategy moved into Chicago to set up pre-convention headquarters today amid talk that Gov. John Bricker of Ohio has gained ground in the fight for the presidential nomination.

New York state Republican Chairman Edwin Frank Jaeckle, National Committeeman Chairman J. Russell Sprague and Herbert Brownell, Dewey's gubernatorial campaign manager, sent advance word to Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms, self-described advance agent of a "Draft Dewey" movement that they were ready for a new interview (at 5 p. m. E.W.T.). There were unconfirmed reports that they would give word of Dewey being willing to accept the nomination. This contrasted sharply with Dewey's personal reticence to discuss presidential aspirations.

Bricker Still Working

Talk circulated along Chicago's jammed hotel row that the indefatigable Bricker, who has spoken in every section of the country, was enlisting some new delegate strength as some early arrivals stood in line for rooms preliminary to the convention opening a week from today.

Party activities get under way formally Wednesday with convening of the resolutions committee.

While many Republicans thought it might be Dewey on the first ballot at Chicago stadium next week, Roy D. Moore, Bricker's campaign manager, predicted the Ohioan would win the nomination "on the sixth or seventh ballot."

Moore, who told a news conference Bricker is the man who would be most likely to win in November, exuded confidence that seemed to be heightened by some developments.

These included an announcement by Sen. Moore (R-Okla.) who heads Oklahoma's 23-vote delegation that he intends to support Bricker. In addition, a member of the West Virginia delegation predicted Bricker would have a majority of that state's votes on the first ballot.

Says Most Favor Dewey

Sen. Moore's announcement drew from Lew Wentz, Oklahoma national committeeman, the assertion that a majority of Oklahoma Republicans favored Dewey.

Talk of an increase in Bricker strength seemed centered upon the fact the Ohio governor has campaigned in all sections of the country and generally has made a good impression. There was talk also that "anti-Dewey factions" were concentrating behind his candidacy.

However, Mrs. Simms predicted Dewey would win on the first ballot. She said a personal check convinced her a delegate majority from 14 states west of the Mississippi would support the New Yorker.

Bricker Says Ohio Is Safely Republican

By H. H. DAUGHERTY

COLUMBUS, O., June 19—Gov. Bricker disagreed today with a statement by his presidential manager that Ohio would be a doubtful state in November unless the governor was the Republican nominee.

He said he felt certain Ohioans would vote Republican in both national and state races.

Roy D. Moore, manager of Bricker's campaign, said in Chicago yesterday that "no one can write Ohio in the Republican column unless Bricker heads the ticket."

"Do you agree with that?" reporters asked the presidential candidate at a press conference.

Ohio, the governor replied, is Republican, both national and state.

"The government in Ohio has been functioning efficiently and has laid out splendid postwar programs," he added. "The school and welfare departments are operating excellently. Every community already is set for reconversion to civilian production.

"I am sure that such a program the people of Ohio will approve.

"And I am also confident that the plan will be carried out by the succeeding Republican administration.

"Not only is our program laid out, but we have the money available to pay for it."

The governor, who leaves Wednesday night for Chicago and next week's convention, said he had no specific planks to suggest to the resolutions committee, but instead would make a general statement. His ideas, he said, already have been expressed in various campaign addresses.

Earlier Jr. Frank McDermond Jr., president of the Bricker-for-President clubs, predicted today Gov. Bricker would win the Republican nomination on the third ballot at Chicago next week.

The Attica, Ind., publisher said in a statement that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York lacked sufficient votes for a first ballot nomination and that Bricker would "make a substantial gain" on the second.

"The delegates will then be released from voting for their favorite son candidates, after which they will vote for Gov. Bricker," McDermond said.

HARDIN CO. WOMAN DROWNS IN QUARRY

Wife of Sgt. Price, Hero of South Pacific War.

Special to The Star

KENTON, June 19—Mrs. Goldie Branan Price, 19, of Ada was drowned in a stone quarry at Dunkirk where she was wading Sunday afternoon. She had gone to the pool with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Ben Price, and the two were walking on a ledge when Mrs. Price stepped into 15 feet of water. No one at the scene of the accident was able to make a rescue. The inhalator squad of the Kenton fire department was called when her body was taken out of the quarry about an hour later, but attempts to revive her proved futile.

Mrs. Price was the wife of Technical Sgt. Frank L. Price, veteran of South Pacific action who is stationed in Atlantic City, N. J. He was home six weeks ago and his wife had gone to Atlantic City with him, returning Friday. Sgt. Price was a member of the crew of the bomber, "Tokyo Express," and has flown on 47 missions. He is on 30-day ministry for a rest.

NEARLY 30,000 NAZI TROOPS CUT OFF IN AMERICAN ADVANCE

BULLETINS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, June 19—Advanced allied infantry elements are about eight miles from Cherbourg on the west of the Normandy peninsula, the British radio said today, and American artillery has opened fire on the port. It depicted a "general advance right across the whole" of the peninsula.

* * *

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 19—The American Ninth division has beaten off a German attempt to break out of the Cherbourg trap, repulsing a heavy local counter-attack, allied headquarters announced today.

* * *

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 19—American troops laid siege today to the defenses of Cherbourg, third greatest naval port and arsenal of France, after reinforcing and broadening the assault corridor which had isolated the peninsula.

Between 25,000 and 30,000 Nazi defenders were cut off in the Cherbourg area. Escape appeared impossible. They had two choices—to fight to the death or surrender.

The spearhead of Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's spectacular drive to capture this big port, developed by Napoleon, was the U. S. Ninth division. Capture of a French naval base would be on old story for this division, for the ninth broke through German defenses to take Bizerte, Tunisia, 13 months ago under Maj. Gen. Manton S. Eddy.

United States forces that severed the peninsula were busy widening their break-through path to the Atlantic coast, which even last night was seven miles wide. They were driving the Germans down toward La Haye Du Puits, big road junction seven miles south of St. Sauveur Le Vicomte, into what appeared to be another trap, for one American trans-peninsular spearhead has been within four miles of La Haye for several days.

If this spearhead takes the town of La Haye, the Germans in that area will be in another pocket—between St. Lo D'Ourville and the Atlantic coast.

A third American column under Bradleys' command struck south of Lison to within six miles of St. Lo, important rail and highway junction in the Vire river valley, 42 air miles south of Cherbourg.

Almost all the advances on the Normandy beachhead reported today by supreme headquarters were on the American side except at Tilly-Sur-Seulles, 11 miles west of Caen, where a British division broke through German defenses in a small breach and was fighting in the streets of Tilly.

Monty Prepares Punch

All along the rest of the beachhead front there were brisk small actions as Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, allied ground commander, built up his forces for a typical "Monty" punch backed up by thousands of big guns.

Beach areas were quiet, with the wind at "force two," and unloading of men and materiel proceeded at a rapid rate.

On the beachhead side the German air force virtually had disappeared, which might be an indication that Marshal Erwin Rommel was conserving his forces for an all-out attack.

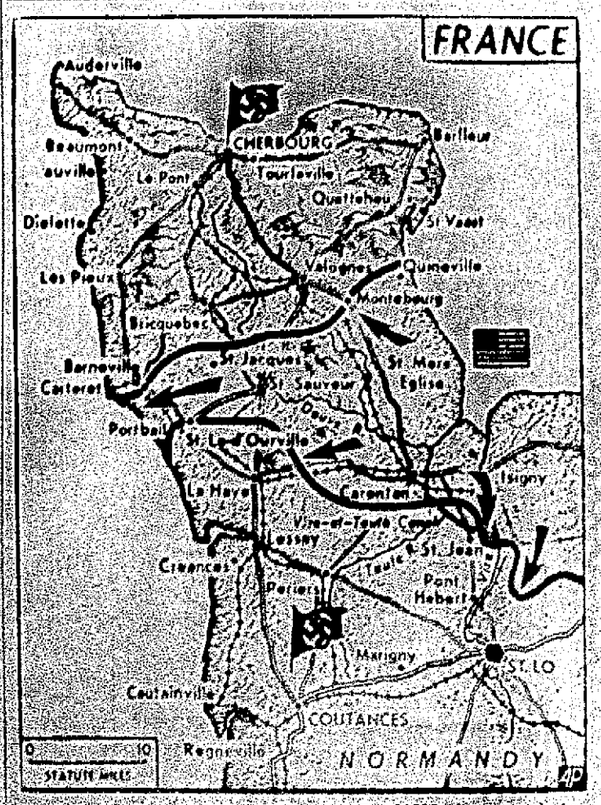
German troops in the Cherbourg area are not of the highest quality, and they have been using many horse drawn guns, many of which have been knocked out by allied strafing planes.

The Germans have a strong perimeter defense around Cherbourg and undoubtedly Hitler's orders will be to hold on to the last. There is no chance for the German garrison to escape, since the allies control all sea and air routes.

The German-held channel islands, which have too many heavy guns, may give the allied western flank a good deal of trouble, but so far American and British battleships have been able to deal with any coastal defenses encountered. For example, the troublesome German battery at Houlgate, east of Ouistreham and the mouth of the Orne river, was believed silenced by the British battleship Ramillies. It was one of the few German batteries left that could rake the invasion beaches.

While the Germans were expected to attempt destruction of the port of Cherbourg, they are unlikely to prevent its use by the allies. The naval docks, especially, are hewn out of solid rock and there is little the Germans can do against these.

It was disclosed today that on the eastern end of the beachhead Montgomery has under his command the British seventh armored division, famed as the "Juba," or "Desert Rat" division.



WHERE YANKS CLOSE TRAP ON GERMANS. (war map) Arrows indicate American advances including the break-through to the west coast of the Cherbourg peninsula between Barneville and St. Lo-D'Ourville, thereby trapping thousands of Germans to the north. Principal other U. S. gain was a drive west of the Vire river to within less than six miles of St. Lo. (AP Wirephoto)

Stake YOUR Claim NOW with War Bonds

It took a lot of grit for a man and wife to stow their children into a prairie schooner with a few bare necessities and fight it out with all the hardships the frontier had to offer. Yet, these self-reliant pioneers proved their ability to win the finest reward a family can have—security in a land of growing opportunities.

Today, solid citizens are staking their claim in America's future by buying and keeping War Bonds. They know Bonds help to win battle after battle. They know, too, that Bonds will provide security and opportunity for personal initiative when war-supported activity ceases.

Do you know of anything that offers you as much for your money as a War Bond?

GULF'S Protective Maintenance Plan includes Gulflex Registered Lubrication which reaches up to 39 vital engine, chassis, and body points with six different Gulflex Lubricants that reduce wear, and add miles to your car's life.

First Two Weeks of Invasion Finds Beachhead Secure

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
(Substituting for DeWitt Mackenzie)

The fateful fortnight which has encompassed Allied plans and fears for more than two years ends tonight, and the Germans have failed to mount either the beachhead defense or the massive counter-attack which had been expected.

As a matter of fact, a comparatively small Allied initial force, harassed by unseasonably bad weather which interferes with both reinforcement and supply, has engaged approximately one-fourth of the estimated German strength in France and found it only a hindrance.

To be sure, undue optimism is never proper when dealing with the reichswehr. You can be sure that it has been busily repairing road blocks and bridges swept by the pre-invasion aerial hurricane of the Allies. Paris is a hundred miles away, we have been only preparing to go there, and there may be Cassinos on the way.

But as the fortnight ends during which we expected to learn whether the beachhead would be secure, we do learn, and it is. Not only that, but the campaign for capture of a great port, through which reinforcements can flow by the tens of thousands rather than the hundreds and thousands possible on the open beach, moves, truly according to plan. Word from the Cherbourg peninsula is that the Americans crossed to the western shore through the very points, along the very country roads, as envisaged long ago in the offices of the planners.

Learn First Lesson

There may not be any refugees from Sevastopol—there weren't many, anyway—at Cherbourg, but there are 25,000 to 30,000 Germans there, the reports say, who are about to learn the same lesson. The fate of the German 77th division, which battered itself into small pieces against the American line in an effort to escape, is sufficient harbinger of that.

The Germans will make every effort to spoil Cherbourg. But Naples was proof of what the Allies are prepared to do with quick repairs. Soon a great army, flanked on each side and sheltered overhead by dominant sea and air support, will be forming on the peninsula for the real drive into Hitler's domains. And Von Runstedt, if he hopes to stop it, will have to produce something more fomidable than he has shown so far, including his "scattergun" rocket bombs.

Piles Are Never 'Mild'
DANGER IN NEGLECT
No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.
Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formations without tendency to heal themselves. Instead, they are likely, if neglected, to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.
Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting, predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as: indigestion, biliousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in the back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.
Removal of piles is the only permanent relief. This can be done without knife, drugs or loss of time from work.

POLITICS

He declared that Republicans could not win the fall election unless they carried the central states, "and Governor Bricker is certain to carry Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and the surrounding states."

Meanwhile, leaders of the Ohio MacArthur for President club asked followers of the general to support Bricker. Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced several weeks ago he was not a candidate.

Bricker, the club spokesman said in a formal statement, has "demonstrated the same high ideals of Americanism as the famous general."

"Both are midwesterners," the statement added, "undazzled by the glitter and pomposity of the decadent aristocracies of the old world; both are devoted to a deep respect for the traditional American institutions which has made us the world's greatest nation. ***

Governor Bricker is, today, the only candidate for president who has the courage and confidence in himself to freely and frankly discuss the nation's problems with the people."

Los Angeles Feels Two Earthquake Shocks

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, June 19—Downtown buildings swayed, residences trembled, burglar alarms were set off and many persons fled into the streets as two earthquakes jolted Los Angeles and nearby cities yesterday. Two lighter quakes were felt early today in communities just south of here.

The shocks yesterday were the strongest since those of March 10, 1933, when 121 persons were killed and property damage of $75,000,000 caused in Compton, Long Beach and Los Angeles.

DR. R. O. WILLIAMS DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Former President of O. N. U. Known in Marion.

Dr. Robert O. Williams, 60, fourth president of Ohio Northern university at Ada died at Van Wert yesterday of pneumonia, according to an Associated Press report today from Van Wert.

Dr. Williams retired last June after serving as head of the university 14 years. A widely known educator, he had an outstanding administrative record at the university. At the time when he announced his intention to retire, the board of trustees urged him to reconsider his decision.

He refused, however, asserting that he wished to devote his time to lecturing and writing and felt the university "needed new leadership."

He was succeeded as head of the university by Dr. Robert O. McClure.

Dr. Williams appeared in Marion as a speaker before Marion organizations and a few years ago was selected to give the commencement address for the graduating class of Harding High school. He also spoke at a father-son banquet at the Masonic temple about two years ago. His last appearance here was in 1942 when he attended a Kiwanis meeting as the principal speaker.

In a letter received by a friend here written on May 18, Dr. Williams told of being appointed lecturer in Rotary International's Institute of International understanding and told of giving 60 lectures in 30 cities since receiving the appointment.

He is survived by his wife, a son, Milton, now in the Army, and a daughter. Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in a Van Wert Mortuary.

CIO TESTS STRENGTH IN MAINE ELECTION

By The Associated Press

Strength of the CIO political action committee in Maine was tested at the polls today as voters picked party nominees for three house seats and governor.

In the first congressional district, which includes the shipbuilding centers of Portland and Bath, Republican Andrew A. Pettis, president of the Portland CIO shipyard local, was trying for both major party nominations with the indorsement of Maine's united labor committee. The incumbent, Robert Hale, a Republican, is seeking renomination.

Since Main's general election comes early, Sept. 11, state results have been watched in the past as a possible weathervane indicating national trends.

Japan's Problem

IT IS remarkable that the Japanese offensive to knock out the Australians ushered in the beginning of the bombing of Japan while the United States is actively committed in the Canadian effort against Germany. The significance of the coincidence is not lost on the Japanese. The attack on Japanese war production has started.

Japan's problem of defense and the American problem of attack are the opposite sides of certain geographical fact. Strategic bombing like that unfurled last week with the assistance of our superbombers flying from Chinese bases depends, obviously, on accessibility of targets. In Germany, up to the time that bombers began to operate from Italy, certain targets could not be reached. Other targets could be reached only with extra difficulty due to their great overhead distance from Allied bases and the advantage thus held by German defense.

With few exceptions, the likeliest targets in Japan lie on the perimeters of the Japanese islands, accessible to planes flying across water. All the distances concerned are, of course, very great, but it will be noted in this connection that the distance from Chungking in China to Tokyo is the same as that from Kiska in the Aleutians and that the distance from Manila to Tokyo is somewhat less. The range of the new bombers is a secret, but it is no secret that they have been designed and will be built in large numbers chiefly to carry the war to Japan from land bases—and without waiting for the Japanese to be driven out of China. Since those bases lie well beyond the range of Japanese ability to strike back, its supposed strength of isolation is going to be exploited against it under the same plan of strategic bombing which slowed German war production to the stalling point preparatory to the opening of the final grand assault.

Germany's Newest Terror

THE pilotless plane being glimpsed through the veil of censorship and military secrecy is apparently Germany's outstanding recent contribution to the science of terror and bloodletting. The device will take its toll of life and treasure, but its use cannot be decisive at this stage of the war unless by some miracle of production the Germans can fill the sky with them. A few more deaths in England and the destruction of a little more property cannot salvage victory at this late date.

German preoccupation with mechanical terror has been a dominant characteristic of the war. Robot tanks have made their appearance, without conspicuous success. Glider bombs have been used. German land mines have wrought tremendous damage. At the outset of the war, marine mines which sought out their targets threatened to be a serious factor. The Germans were first to use sirens on planes and bombs. They are obsessed with the theory of terror.

But terror is not going to win World war II any more than the precursors of terror, including poison gas, were able to win World war I. Aside from their immediate effect, they have been principally important as a clue to the nature of the nation which has been so eager to use them. They merely add to the indictment brought by more civilized peoples against the lurking barbarism which has broken out in Germany twice in one generation and undoubtedly will break out again if it is left unguarded.

Agreement on Foreign Policy

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S declaration that his administration favors an international council with broad responsibilities for promoting and facilitating international cooperation and adjudicating disputes takes the foreign policy issue out of the presidential campaign, assuming that Mr. Roosevelt is going to be the Democratic nominee.

There is nothing in Mr. Roosevelt's statement of intent that cannot be subscribed to generally. It is a virtual duplicate of the prevailing Republican attitude. Dissent could come only from extremists in both parties who have been trying to stir up an argument for which there was no basis in prevailing public opinion.

The so-called foreign policy issue always was a myth because there could be no issue as between parties, unless one or the other, or both, came under the control of persons who did not reflect popular opinion. In other words, there is no foreign policy issue in popular opinion. The ordinary run of Americans will want their country to encourage and support any practicable plan for international consultation that may be devised. They will favor all moves to maintain peace by preventive measures, in cooperation with other peace-minded nations. They will insist on retention of sovereignty and will resist all proposals for international police forces, not because they are unwilling to pay that price for peace, but because instinct warns them that there is no adequate basis for such a radical departure; and that it would be, therefore, a failure.

So They Say—

America will be the only nation to emerge from the war unscarred.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president Columbia University.

Every stout boy born in 1943 can become a brave soldier in 1963.—German high command instruction manual.

News Behind the News

U. S. Runs Third Position in Italy, May Land in Same Place in France.

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, June 19—Sly Mr. Roosevelt followed his usual course in evolving his announced blueprint for the post-war world order.

He let the Wall Street, Wilkies and Winchells fight out their issues in public while he sat back and said nothing. Then he worked out a common ground formula, discarding the ideas of all of them for a solution, scheme first announced in public by State Secretary Hull.

It caused considerable grumbling among both Republican and Democratic senators. Men like Senator Ball, who wanted an international police force and, in fact, an internationalized world, were disappointed, but the explosionproof Senator Vandenberg was fairly well pleased. He whispered to newsmen behind his hand that it looked like the President was coming around to the Vandenberg position.

But it was obvious such a solution would pave the senate way clear only when it comes up, as it must, in the form of a treaty. It is in harmony with even the Smith-Connally resolution, and the Mackinac Island declaration of the Republicans.

Depends On Details

To that extent unity is probable, but actually the formula settles no more than the first point at issue. The details of how it is worked out will give the post-war world its character.

For instance, congressmen have concluded that in the establishment of the Italian government so far, we have run third with Russia on top there, and friends of Great Britain in second position. Little has been said on the floor, but this has been a main topic in the cloakrooms since the speech of Senator Bridges, asking if Mr. Roosevelt had lost the initiative in Europe.

This situation unquestionably is the primary reason for the coming visit of General De Gaulle to the White House. We also run about third in his organization.

Now it is clear that if Mr. Roosevelt does not do better in France than he did in Italy, we will in reality be third in all Europe, no matter how much equality we seem to enjoy in the blueprint formula presented.

The Formula

So also within the formula itself. The top council composed of the United States, Great Britain, Russia and China (the names are always used in that order) no doubt will dominate the assembly and seem to give control of the world jointly to the four great powers. The assembly of all the nations presumably will not meet often and may act only in an advisory capacity.

But with Russia on top in Europe and Britain clinging to her empire, our influence in reality no doubt will be restricted to this hemisphere. Britain and Russia always have had more authority in the far east than we had, and there is no noticeable change in that situation yet.

These are the facts of life in the world beyond the formula and apt to be more important than it is.

No Super State

But there is to be no super state, and no surrender of sovereignty, and all are to keep their arms individually. Thus it follows the same line advocated and predicted in this column from the beginning of the discussion.

Other particular agreements now in the negotiating mill are hardly within sight of political unity. In advance of the Bretton Woods monetary conference, the experts of practically all the nations have been gathered together secretly.

Harry White, director of monetary research in the treasury assembled them at Atlantic City in an effort to get what was described as "an agreement at the expert level" in advance of the conference.

But in this instance, too, the important thing will be the value of gold and the dollar in relation with other currencies, rather than the formula devised for future international monetary negotiations.

Italy's House of Savoy

TRANSFER of royal powers from King Victor Emmanuel III of Italy to Crown Prince Umberto as lieutenant general of the realm has fulfilled a pledge given to Allied authority that the monarchy would change hands whenever Rome fell.

King Victor did not abdicate. He remains as king of Italy and head of the house of Savoy, though turning over his powers "without exception" to his heir. Perhaps the king is mindful that his house was established only 83 years ago and wants to avert any move suggestive of instability. King Victor came to the throne in 1900 when his father, Umberto I, was assassinated by an Italian anarchist from the United States.

The house of Savoy moved into the main Italian peninsula from Piedmont and Sardinia, displacing well established royal houses in minor Italian states. Curiously, when the house of Savoy became the royal house of Italy, Savoy itself became part of France.

In the 18th century Savoy emerged as a strong military state. By the Treaty of Utrecht, the Duke of Savoy was given Sicily, which he traded to Austria in 1720 for Sardinia. During the French revolution, what is now Italy was divided among nine separate states. Under Napoleon, the area was divided into three parts. Napoleon governed the north and French kings ruled in Naples. Central Italy was a separate kingdom, with its capital at Milan. Sicily was under a Spanish ruler. Conditions, even in the Papal states, were deplorable.

After the Napoleonic wars, the powers reestablished the minor Italian states. In 1848 a constitution was promulgated for Piedmont which became a model for the later constitution of Italy. Piedmont and Sardinia became the hope of Italian liberalism.

In 1851 Count Cavour became premier of the Piedmont-Sardinia state. He played the great powers against each other to achieve Italian unity. Various Italian provinces voted for union with Piedmont. Cavour and Napoleon III joined in war against Austria, and the French emperor demanded Savoy and Nice. Garibaldi liberated Naples and Sicily, which voted for union with Piedmont in 1860, and in 1861 the kingdom of Italy was proclaimed under Victor Emmanuel II. France's war with Prussia in 1870 enabled Italy to occupy the Papal states and Italy at last was unified.

De Gaulle Problem Complicates Invasion

Allies Reluctant To Grant His Demands.

THE French Committee of National Liberation was quick to report after Gen. Charles de Gaulle's brief visit to Normandy this week that he was greeted everywhere in an atmosphere of "immense fervor." It explained that he left instructions regarding "resumption of civil administration, organization of supplies and public relief."

This sanguine view of De Gaulle's status is typical of the attempt being made to force the Allies to commit themselves to the French Committee of National Liberation as the acting government of France.

The issue is not, however, peculiar to the situation in France. It is typical, rather, of the situation prevailing in Europe, particularly in areas where doubts exist as to the character and composition of the governments that may assume power following liberation from Nazi rule.

There is an intense struggle for advantage, and the military powers which are going to liberate European countries from German rule are operating in the midst of rival camps.

The United States made known its attitude in an address by Secretary of State Hull on April 9. Mr. Hull, referring to France, said he and President Roosevelt were "disposed to see the French Committee of National Liberation exercise leadership to establish law and order under the supervision of the Allied commander-in-chief."

Gen. Eisenhower in his proclamation of June 9 to Frenchmen said "it will be for the French people to provide their own civil administration and to safeguard my troops by the effective maintenance of law and order." He said that members of the French military mission attached to him—presumably representing the French Committee of National Liberation—would furnish assistance to that end.

When victory had been won, Gen. Eisenhower explained, "the French people will be free to choose at the earliest possible moment, under democratic methods and conditions, the government under which they wish to live."

FOREIGN Policy Bulletin in its current issue points out that in spite of these declarations, "many Americans continue to be puzzled by the reluctance of the Washington administration to recognize the French committee in Algiers, if not as the de jure government of France, at least as a provisional regime subject to review by the French people through freely held elections."

The Bulletin, which is published by Foreign Policy association, says one explanation is that President Roosevelt has found it difficult to obtain the cooperation of Gen. de Gaulle.

"Far more significant," the Bulletin explains, "is Mr. Roosevelt's profound conviction, based on information he considers to be authentic, that there are many people in France, who, while stubbornly hostile to the Nazis and the Vichy regime, are not ready, for a variety of reasons, to accept Gen. de Gaulle. Acting on this conviction, the President is said to feel that our future relations with France will be far more endangered by recognition of De Gaulle and his arrival on French territory under our auspices than by his non-recognition."

Foreign Policy Bulletin declares, "This clearly is a matter of judgment and opinion. Only when France's principal cities have been liberated and the French people are free to make their views known without fear or favor will it be possible to say whether the President has been correct in estimating what is admittedly a highly complex situation. Meanwhile, the United States has probably gone as far as is now practicable in giving the French Committee of National Liberation top priority, so to speak, to reestablish civilian administration in the wake of Allied invasion—subject to the emergence of other patriotic groups which may not see eye to eye with De Gaulle."

CHARLES ANDRE JOSEPH MARIE DE GAULLE was born in Lille in 1890. He served in the French army during World war I and entered l'Ecole Superieure de Guerre, France's war college, in 1924.

His fame in France and in military circles outside France was gained by his advocacy of a highly mechanized French army. His books on the subject of mechanized warfare were studied closely by experts, though they failed to convert French military methods wholly to his point of view.

Soon after the beginning of the war with Germany in 1939 he was made a general of brigade and then a general of division. In 1940, he was sent to England by Marshal Petain to confer on military aid.

Refusing to accept France's capitulation to Germany, he remained in England and rallied Frenchmen to the cause of a Free France. He was court-martialed in his absence by the Petain government and condemned to death for his insubordination.

His first military exploit as an expatriate Frenchman was the unsuccessful attack on Dakar in September, 1940. He cooperated with the British in the conquest of Syria in 1941.

It is an open secret that Gen. de Gaulle's unquestioned ability as a militarist and his obvious influence as a symbolic rallying point of French resistance have been handicapped heavily by his apparent inability to maintain pleasant relations with other persons.

He has been the source of one difficulty after another ever since the Allies undertook the tremendous task of doing for France what Frenchmen lacked the power to do for themselves. His latest error in this field was withdrawal of orders to certain Frenchmen under his authority who were to accompany the first wave of invasion troops, a move believed to have been made in a spirit of retaliation for denial of his request for complete authority in areas conquered by the Allied armies.

Labor To Spare

The unsolved problem in maintaining war production in 1944 may be official estimates of the labor supply needed for the job, in the opinion of the editors of Factory, a business magazine.

The magazine suggests that the number of workers needed to meet war production scheduled may be overestimated by Washington sources which fail to take into account the experience factor in mass production. A bomber which once required 200,000 man-hours to produce now is being produced with 22,000 man-hours for example.

Factory says there are two schools of thought on conversion of war workers to civilian goods production. On one side, the war and navy departments take the stand there never can be too much of anything allocated to the armed services. On the other side are some leaders in WPB agreeing the armed services must have everything they need but also insisting that any surplus of manpower after war schedules have been met should be put to work in the domestic economy.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

The Supreme Court, Play by Pla

THERE was quite a sensation in Washington the other day. Caused by a report the United States Supreme Court had agreed something it was erroneous.

• • •

Those supreme court decisions are getting harder to keep track of than the baseball scores. There are more disputes among the justices over what the laws mean than there are among police court lawyers.

• • •

The police court lawyers have this on their side: they sometimes stick to an interpretation for weeks at a stretch.

• • •

The very words "The supreme Court has reached a decision" today brings the inquiry, "What was the score?"

• • •

And also, "What inning."

• • •

The other day a decision that had stood for 75 years was thrown out the window by a 5 to 4 vote, with two justices out to lunch. Three supreme court justices agreed with Chief Justice Stone that the law should be sustained. Four agreed with Justice Hugo Black that it should be brushed off without regard for precedent or past decisions by the high court.

• • •

And the supreme court is the court to which causes are sent because those in the lower courts can't agree!

• • •

The public looks on in complete disgust. The lower courts look on with chuckles. And the lawyers of the country look on with a feeling that perhaps they should cease to consult Blackstone and leave everything to a pin-ball machine.

• • •

There used to be a feeling that a point of law could be settled by carrying it to the supreme court in the land.

• • •

In fact, the feeling was pretty well based.

• • •

You thought the supreme court justices read the same law books that the rest of us had. And that they had extra qualifications for catching the drift of them.

• • •

You never had the impression that the justices were playing in different leagues, using opposing technics and employing conflicting systems.

• • •

Lawyers took cases to the supreme court to get them SETTLED!

• • •

Those were the days!

• • •

Now they take them there in the same spirit a man plays the Daily Double. There's nothing to telling.

• • •

Pass the aspirin, judge!

LONG SHOT RETURNS $1,038.60; F. R. G. WINS RACE FEATUR

4,500 on Hand for Top Card of Marion Circuit Meet.

By CHARLES ELLIOTT
Marion Star Sports Editor

THE most highly-touted and publicized harness racing program in local turf history—the three-event card at the county fairground track Saturday night headlined by the $5,000, 2:04 bar pace—in truth exceeded the most exuberant raceman's expectations for gaiety, color and unprecedented occurrences in the betting department.

The largest crowd ever to witness a Little Grand Circuit racing card at the fairgrounds—over 4,500 persons, many of whom came from out of town—enjoyed bitterly-contested sulky driving and saw F.R.G., definitely not a favorite for top honors, finish first in the Morral Supply Co.'s bar pace, the feature race of the entire meeting.

One of these 4,500, George Wright of 206 South State street in Marion, was the lone holder of a 2 combination ticket on Doctor Brodie, a rank outsider, which won the second heat of the 2:04 bar pace and returned $1,038.60, the highest mutuel return in the annals of American harness racing, according to race officials at the Marion meeting. Doctor Brodie was an approximate 500 to 1 shot, which can be readily understood in view of Mr. Wright being the only person in such a large crowd to lay a ticket "on the Doctor's nose."

Never Before

Never in Marion Little Grand Circuit racing has any price on a race winner approached the figure returned on Doctor Brodie. It's doubtful if few, if any, returns on running races exceeded the price on Doctor Brodie. Doctor paid $174.40 for a place ticket and $21.80 for a show ducat. Several persons had show tickets on the long, long shot. Mr. Wright's total earnings were $1,136.70, which included the straight price $87.20 for place and $10.90 for show.

Frank M. Foster, general manager of the Marion Circuit meeting, which runs through next Saturday night, declared following Doctor's Brodie's startling victory, "That was the biggest price paid on any harness racing track."

Mr. Wright is the head of the Wright Transfer & Storage Co. on Oak street in Marion. He is a member of the Marion Country club and a well-known local sportsman.

Dramatic Triumph

Doctor Brodie's triumph in the second heat of the highlight race was dramatic, putting it mildly. My Son, one of the pre-race favorites driven by Joe Rick, led for most of this heat but broke in the homestretch and wound up sixth. Doctor Brodie was well back in the field of the prospective also-rans going into the stretch. About 50 yards from the finish, Jake Mahoney of Toledo piloted Doctor Brodie between several horses in the nine-horse race and the Saunders Mill-owned horse came across the wire about a half-head in front of F.R.G., second place horse and eventual race winner. Presiding Judge Joe McGraw called for a photo to make certain that Doctor Brodie had won the heat of such a key race.

The accurate photo-finish showed that the Doctor won. About five minutes later, the four-digit price went up on the totalizer in the infield. Bob Hope, another long shot, wound up third in this heat and returned: $26.50. The odds on this horse were nearly as great as those on Doctor Brodie.

Doctor Brodie had made one previous appearance in the current Marion meeting, finishing third in the $1,000 Carl's Auto Parts stake for 12 pacers a week ago Saturday night. Mahoney drove the Doctor to three successive third-place finishes in this race.

F. R. G.'s Win Surprise

F. R. G.'s win in the final heat of the feature race was almost as unexpected as that of Doctor Brodie. In this heat, F.R.G. led at the very outset but Carty Nagle, one of the heavily-backed starters in the bar pace, quickly assumed the lead and held it at the half. Prince Yakima, bidding for his second heat win, surged around the outside in the backstretch and went ahead in the upper turn. Prince Yakima was ahead going into the homestretch with Carty Nagle second and F. R. G. third. Then F. R. G. began to really "tear" and passed the finish line a length ahead of Carty Nagle, place horse.

It was the first win of the meeting for big Bob Plaxico, Canton driver and owner of several horses. F. R. G., owned by L. J. Gottschalk of Milwaukee, finished fourth in the first heat but was second in the second session and took race honors with the astounding victory in the final heat. For his efforts, a garland of flowers was placed around the neck of F. R. G. following the program.

Prince Yakima, which was liked in some circles before Saturday night's card won the first heat of the big race by a length margin over Watson E. Direct, driven by Wayne "Curly" Smart. Warren Dennis piloted the Prince, Bob Hope, owned and driven by Bob Mason of Mt. Vernon, was in front at the start of the heat, at the half and throughout the backstretch. Then, in the upper turn, Prince Yakima, opened up and took the lead. He led the rest of the way.

The time of 2:07, recorded by Prince Yakima in the first heat is the fastest time in this year's meeting for the mile route and faster than any time registered in last season's 15-night local meet. The bar pace, as expected, produced corking good times, the only exception being the 2:11 racked up by Doctor Brodie in the second heat. F. R. G. was clocked in 2:08 in the final heat.

The supplementary events on Saturday night's ninth program of the meeting were the Ohio State Journal 2:6 pace for $300, won by Claire Hal, and the $300 Classified Trot copped by Walter J. Michael's Miss Sarah Abbey.

Palin Wins

Sep Palin, driving Claire Hal, owned by Mrs. J. B. Johnson of Rochester, Mich., moved into second place in the race for piloting laurels. His two wins Saturday give him seven which is second only to Harry Fitzpatrick's 12. Hugh Bell of Marion, who did not race Saturday, is third with six. Wayne Smart drove Miss Sarah Abbey to victory in the second race.

Little Tom driven by Foy Funderburk led at the start and at the half of the first heat of the opening race. Claire took the lead in the upper turn and went on to win by a head over Dick Bunter driven by Bob Plaxico. Dick Bunter was ahead at the start of the second heat but Claire Hal pushed into the fore in the backstretch of the first half. She led at the half and by a half-length going into the homestretch. She finished three lengths in front of Little Tom. Dick Bunter was ahead at the start and for most of the backstretch in the final heat, which went 9/16 of a mile. However, Dick Bunter broke in this stage of the race and Little Tom grabbed the lead and won in a time of 1:12¾.

Magnesium, driven by Dailey, was in front at the halfway pole of the first heat of the second race. Miss Sarah Abbey, star horse in the film "Home in Indiana," now at the Ohio theater, went ahead in the upper turn and led by two lengths over Red Tower skippered by Eddie Havens in the final bend preceding the homestretch lane. She won by a length over Red Tower. Miss Sarah Abbey did the half in 1:07 in the second heat and led until the backstretch when Red Tower took the lead. However, Miss Abbey snatched it back going into the stretch and finished in front by a length and a half. Miss Sarah Abbey was scratched in the final heat and Red Tower had a virtually clear field. However, until the homestretch, it appeared that Summer Son would win this 9/16 final heat. But Summer Son broke in the stretch and Red Tower spurted in to win by three lengths.

NEWARK CLUB TAKES THREE-GAME SERIES FROM MARION CUBS

Errors Result in 8 to 6 Defeat Sunday; Hudson Flings 1-Hitter Saturday.

Special to The Star

NEWARK, June 18—With the aid of six Marion errors Newark's league Moundsmen swept a three-game series from Marion with an 8 to 6 victory here today. Newark won the first game Friday night 5-0 to 4 and took Saturday's encounter 6 to 1.

The series was highlighted by Southpaw Hal Hudson's brilliant one-hitter Saturday night. It was the first start for the little Newark left-hander and only Blunt's single in the second frame kept him from baseball's hall of fame.

Towering Bob Evans managed to survive the torrid sun and some sandlot fielding by his mates to put down the determined Cubs Sunday. Evans allowed only five hits, but his mates kicked in with five costly miscues.

Alvin Crowe started for Marion and pitched good ball until the sun got the best of him in the fifth. Francis Bailey finished on the hill for Marion. Crowe was charged with the defeat.

Bill Smith, Marion third sacker, pounded out a home run to deep left field in the fifth inning. Bill Broukal of the Cubs shelled out a double in the eighth.

Newark was leading only 4 to 2 going into the last of the seventh inning, then the Ohio State league pace-makers got to the hapless Bailey for three singles and romped merrily around the bases to score four markers as the Cubs made four bad errors. (Marion counted four times in the eighth on a double by Broukal, a base on a single by Bellamy, a single by Barney and a two-run, two-base wild throw by Catcher Roger Frezza.) Art Packe of Marion had a bad first inning against Newark Saturday night and the Moundsmen counted four runs on four hits including a home run by Majorki with one on. Packe gave up an unearned run in the third and then Perini hit a home run over the right-field fence in the seventh. It was Newark's seventh homer of the week and the sixth against Marion.

Hudson walked nine Marion batters, but fanned 12 in his league debut. Marion's one run came in the second inning.

Marion travels to Springfield to open a series there today.

Changes Announced in Marion Roster

Several changes in the playing roster of the Marion Cubs of the Ohio State league were disclosed today by Judge W. Dexter Hazen, club president.

Released from the team are Jim Hansen, catcher and Eric Schultz, pitcher. Schultz is scheduled to report this week to the Bradford, Pa. club of the Class D Pony league. He left Marion with a mound record of four victories and three defeats. Schultz came here from Hartford of the Eastern league and Hansen was supplied by the Chicago Cubs, with whom the Marion club has a working agreement.

Lou Funk, left fielder, third baseman Don Phipps and Outfielder Virl Minnis were last week placed on the temporarily suspended list. Minnis and Funk were suspended because of injuries sustained in the series with Lima and Phipps because of "indifferent playing" charged by Manager Grover Hartley.

Catcher Joe Bellamy was off for a short time last week because of a recurrence of an old leg injury but was back in the game Sunday against Newark. Warren Blunt, right fielder, who had not been with the team for over a week, returned to the lineup last week. New players include Vickerey, a catcher, pitcher Bob Packe and infielder Bill Smith, all products of the Chicago Cubs' farm system.

Newark Now 3 Games Ahead in O. S. L.

Newark's two week-end wins over the seemingly hapless Marion Cubs boosts the Moundsmen's first place lead in the Ohio State league to three full games and shoves the locals 11½ games out of top position. The Marion team of Grover Hartley is two games behind Zanesville, fifth place team, which swept a double-header from the Middletown Red Sox Sunday. Lima split with Springfield and now is in second place, Middletown slipping to third.

TIGERS' NEWHOUSER WINS 10TH CONTEST IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Southpaw Ties Walters for Major Loop Hurling Honors as Bengals Beat Browns.

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hal Newhouser of the Detroit Tigers finally is fulfilling the promise he gave five years ago of becoming the finest lefthander in the American league.

The 23-year-old southpaw yesterday became the first pitcher in the league to win 10 games, helping the Tigers take both games of a double header from the league leading St. Louis Browns, 7-3 and 7-5.

He joins Bucky Walters of the Cincinnati Reds as the only 10-game winner in the majors.

In pitching his seventh complete game of the year, Hal gave up six hits and fanned five in the opener. A home run by Rudy with one on in the ninth gave the Tigers a clean sweep. Paul Trout, in relief, won his eighth victory of the season.

The New York Giants took both ends of a twin bill from the Boston Braves, 9-2 and 7-1, to climb into third place in the National League standings, a half game ahead of the Reds. Phil Weintraub homered in the first game, but had to leave in the third inning because of a strained muscle. Cliff Melton, making his first start since May 19, was the winner in the nightcap, but retired in the seventh inning complaining of a sore arm.

The Philadelphia Athletics downed the New York Yankees twice, 4-0 and 8-6, to drop the world champions into sixth place. Luke Hamlin blanked the Yankees with four hits in the opener, with Frank Hayes hitting his eighth homer to tie Roy Cullenbine for the league lead. A six-run first inning enabled the A's to win the second, 8-6.

The Chicago White Sox took two close games from the Cleveland Indians, 3-2 in ten innings, and 6-5.

The Brooklyn Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies divided their two games, the Dodgers winning the first 7-3 and the Phillies taking the second 6-2.

The St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates split a double header. Mort Cooper won his sixth game in the opener, 12-2, and Fritz Ostermueller tamed the Cards, 3-1, with three hits in the nightcap.

After losing the opener to the Boston Red Sox, 9-6, Washington took the nightcap 1-0 behind the four hit pitching of Early Wynn.

Cincinnati defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 in the first game of a double header before 40,222 fans, the largest crowd of the season, at Wrigley field. The second game ended in a 6-6 tie called after 13 innings on account of darkness.

6 More Nights Left in Circuit Meeting

Marion's Little Grand Circuit harness race meeting continues through this week with six more big cards which will round out Frank Foster's 15-night program, well on its way toward being the most successful this community has ever experienced.

As was the case for the first nine programs, the cards this week will be featured by one $1,000 event and supplemented by two races of smaller purses but certainly not inferior when it comes to excitement and quality horses and drivers.

Tonight's card at the county fairgrounds will be highlighted by the Hotel Harding stake for two-year-old trotters for a $1,000 purse. Other races will be the $500 free-for-all trot, in which winners of a $1,000 race at this meeting will be ineligible to compete. The $300 22 pace will complete tonight's program.

The remainder of the card for this week follows:

Tuesday night—$1,000 WMRN stake for three-yaer-old pacers; $300 14 trot, $200 25 trot.

Wednesday night—$1,000 Schaffner Furniture Co. 15 pace; $300 28 pace, $300 21 trot.

Thursday night—$1,000 Houghton Sulky Co. free-for-all pace; $300 13 pace; $300 18 trot.

Friday night—$1,000 Lords Jewelry Co. three-year-old trot; $300 19 pace; $300 28 trot.

Saturday night—$1,000 Wright's Transfer 2:05 bar trot; $300 16 pace; $300 25 pace.

PITTSBURGH, June 19—The Cincinnati Reds arrive late today for tomorrow night's opening of a three-game series with the Pirates.

Yesterday at Chicago the Reds took the first half of a double-header from the Cubs, 5 to 2, and battled to a 6 to 6 deadlock in the night-cap before Umpire Larry Goetz called the game on account of darkness at the end of 13 innings.

Harry Gumbert, acquired last week from the St. Louis Cardinals, pitched the opener for Cincinnati and allowed the Cubs five hits.

The Reds got a run in the first inning on a single by Gee Walker and Frank McCormick's single. In the fifth, Max Marshall lofted a homer for another score. Single runs were added to the Reds' score in the sixth, seventh and ninth.

Race Sidelights

A few notable sidelights on Saturday night's big race card:

George Reverman's mutuel betting department had its biggest night of the Marion Little Grand Circuit meeting Saturday night with a "take" of an "estimated" $15,000. . . For the first time in many a racing moon, the County fairgrounds infield was lined with people. . . Saturday night, some 1,000 milled around the infield simply because there was no space left in the grandstand or along the rail across the track. . . The grandstand could almost have been filled to capacity twice with the huge crowd on hand Saturday . . . Mrs. H. K. Mouser, chairman of the women's Board of the City hospital, for whose benefit the Little Grand Circuit meeting is being conducted, draped the "Ohio State Journal" blanket over Claire Hal, winner of the State Journal purse. Sep Palin was Claire Hal's driver. . . Mrs. Dwight Mahaffey did the honors of placing the garland of flowers on F. R. G., victor in the 2:04 bar pace. The garland was presented by George Reverman of Columbus, head of the mutuel department and Ray Hennessey of Bellefontaine, official programmer.

Everybody did a whale of a business Saturday night. The concession stand, operated by the Y's Men's Service club sold out of all soft drinks before the three-race card had been half completed. Of course, the hot sultry weather had a lot to do with it. The only drink that could be purchased midway in the program was milk.

Mud Hens Down St. Paul Twice To Go Into Third

By The Associated Press

The Milwaukee Brewers widened their American Association lead to six games Sunday with a double triumph over Louisville while second-place Columbus divided with Minneapolis, but if any bow could be taken during yesterday's eight-game program it was due Toledo's rampaging Mud Hens.

The Brood swept a brace from St. Paul, 9-4 and 7-3, to climb over Louisville into third place with their fifth and sixth straight wins for a record of nine victories in their last 11 starts.

4 Calls Answered by Marion Firemen

Firemen answered four fire calls over the week-end, with two coming from cafes, the other two from car owners.

The first run was to the Brunswick Cafe, 147 North Main street, when the motor of an electric refrigerator stuck and burned, resulting in about $25 damage. The call was answered in the chief's car at 1:22 a. m. yesterday.

A short circuit in a generator wire on a car owned by N. C. Buckingham of 367 Uncepher avenue resulted in a call at 6:48 p. m. to 152 South State street. Minor damage was reported and the call was answered in the line car.

Another call at 10 p. m. was to 525 South Prospect street where a car owned by D. R. LaRue backfired, resulting in burned wiring. Damage was estimated at about $2. Line car was used for the run.

A motor on the deep well at Paulson's Grill 255 West Center street stuck and burned today resulting in about $25 damage. The chief's car was used to answer the alarm at 8:40 a. m.

FINAL MEETING TONIGHT

BALL PARK LIGHTING EQUIPMENT ARRIVES

Lack of Workers Likely To Delay Installation.

Marion's baseball club is one step nearer having lights for night games—the reflectors and some other equipment has been delivered here — but there are new obstacles, chief of which is a crew of workers to install them, club officials reported today.

Sixty big reflectors formerly used to light a field at Tiffin were delivered the latter part of the week, and arrangements are being made to bring six 65-foot poles, equipped with cross arms and individual transformers, from Tiffin to Marion. The poles are about 25 feet higher than those now at the Lincoln park fields.

Priorities for all needed equipment have been obtained, and although not all of the equipment has been bought, enough of it is on hand to get most of the work done — if workers can be obtained.

The lighting system, when installed, will be capable of producing at least 180,000 watts of light, and possibly more than 200,000 watts, which would make the Marion field probably the best lighted one in the Ohio State league.

Y. M. C. A. SWIMMING SCHOOL IN FINAL WEEK

Classes Larger Than Year Ago; Many Pass Tests.

The annual Y. M. C. A. free "Learn To Swim School" for boys and girls entered the final week today. To date 149 girls and 114 boys have enrolled. The girls have had 22 class sessions with 427 individual attendances. The boys have had 32 class sessions with 439 individual attendances. Seventeen girls have passed the swimmers test and 19 boys have learned to swim and passed the swimmers test. Many others have learned to swim a short distance and will pass the full test by the end of the school which closes Saturday noon. The full test required to receive the swimmers certificate is to jump in the deep end of the pool and swim the full length of the pool.

Last year 97 boys and 148 girls enrolled in the school with 16 boys and 24 girls passing the full test. A great many of the pupils learn to swim a short distance and have a thorough knowledge of the fundamental skills necessary to swim so that by practice they become good swimmers after leaving the instructions classes.

With a week to go, the school this year will exceed last year's results in enrollment, attendance and number taught to swim.

Halsey Given Command of Third U. S. Fleet

WASHINGTON, June 19 — Adm. William F. Halsey Jr., who fears just one thing—that the war might end before he lands in Japan—has a new scrapping job and a fleet of his own to lead into battle.

Halsey even now may be steaming with his fleet into action in the Pacific. There is a strong possibility his battlewagons and carriers may have played a big part in the strikes deep in Japanese territory at the Bonin and Volcano island groups, or in the Mariana island operations.

Assignment of the 61-year-old scrapper as commander of the Third fleet under orders to operate in the Pacific was announced over the week-end.

D. OF A. GROUP MEETS

NEW CAR SALE RULES TIGHTENED BY OPA

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 19—With the pool of new 1942 automobiles dwindling rapidly, the office of price administration today tightened eligibility requirements for obtaining certificates.

Effective Friday, qualified applicants must satisfy local rationing boards that a new car would be used principally in an essential activity, rather than only a small part of the time. The list of qualified persons includes doctors, nurses, ministers, war workers and others engaged in work important to the war effort or public health and safety.

Another change eliminates certificates for persons driving four or more students, teachers or school employes to or from schools.

Restrictions provide that members of the armed services or persons found fit and waiting a call to duty may sell used 1942 cars without a rationing certificate only to members of their own families. Heretofore they could sell to anyone without a certificate.

In one extension of eligibility, OPA authorized issuance of certificates to USO clubs.

REPORT MADE ON CANCER CONTROL

$475 Now in Marion County Foundation Fund.

Announcement of $475 as a total of the contributions received for the Cancer Control Foundation for Marion county was made by Mrs. Harold K. Mouser at a meeting of the Marion Chapter of the American Society for the Control of Cancer held Saturday at Hotel Harding. Contributions have been made by 19 persons. Mr. Mouser stated that he believes the first objective of the group should be the establishment of a cancer clinic. His opinion was indorsed by other members of the group. Arrangements were begun for an exposition for cancer control to be held next fall. The exposition will include posters, slides and specimens.

A sound film, "Choose To Live," was shown illustrating that in its early stages cancer can be cured and that in at least one-third of the cases can be prevented.

New members of the chapter from Marion county are Mrs. Paul Farmer, Agosta; Mrs. Arthur Porter, Green Camp; Mrs. A. B. Augenstein, Claridon; Mr. C. L. Baker, Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Clyde Ferry, Waldo; Mrs. S. C. Marcal, Morral, Mrs. Edwin Powell, Prospect.

Japs Gain in Drive To Clear Chinese Railway

CHUNGKING, June 19—Japanese troops have captured three important Chinese strongholds in their Honan province offensive aimed at clearing the Canton-Hankow railway, and 400 miles to the north in Honan province have made gains along the Peiping-Hankow rail line.

This was announced last night by the Chinese high command, which said Chinese defenders in the by-passed Honan capital of Changsha faced the prospect of seeing their last route of retreat cut.

Conquest of both rail lines would give the Japanese a complete north-south line of rail communications, would neutralize some Allied air fields and would facilitate enemy operations against any future American landings on the China coast.

TAFT DECLARES U. S. FIGHTS FOR FREEDOM

By The Associated Press

BETHANY, W. Va., June 19—Americans are fighting for freedom rather than an ideology, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati said yesterday in addressing the graduating class of Bethany college.

"We cannot assure freedom of speech and freedom of religion in Russia for instance, unless we are prepared to fight the rest of our lives," said Taft, who was awarded an honorary doctor of law degree during graduation ceremonies.

"We can hardly be fighting for democracy when so many of our allies—China, Russia and Brazil—are dictatorships without even the semblance of election machinery . . .

"The effect of the Teheran conference was to accelerate the drift towards a controlled world by the three great nations, which has affected the thinking of this country for some time. I do not believe that is the way in which to carry out our war purpose."

RED CROSS WORKER DIES

Thomson who died at his home here, was vice president and advertising manager of the Champion Paper and Fibre Co., Hamilton, O. His mother, Mrs. Alexander Thomson Sr., is president of Western College at Oxford, O.

In spite of the heat of the afternoon, more than 70 people explored the camp with the scout hostesses and guides from 2 p. m. until after 5. Those making the drive were well rewarded by the cooling breezes and restful atmosphere of the camp.

Invasion Weapons

75mm Howitzer

Associated Press Features

Because of its compactness and ease of handling, combined with fire power, the 75 mm howitzer has been used extentively for demolition purposes and against tanks and personnel on all American battlefields.

It can be moved by hand or jeep, loaded complete into planes or gliders, or broken down into seven parts and dropped by parachute. The standard weapon for airborne artillery units, it also can be carried by mules or personnel.

The 75 mm pack howitzer weighs 1,339 pounds, hurls a 15-pound projectile about six miles. It is manned by a crew of nine.

(Tomorrow: The 105 mm Howitzer.)

WHEAT PRICE EASY IN LATE DEALINGS

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 19—Reports that senate and house conferees so far had reached no decision on the pace parity amendment dulled the demand for wheat and rye futures today. Wheat prices were easy in late dealings and rye futures were mixed. The wheat was nervous as traders awaited final action on the legislation.

Short covering attributed to fear that revised selling prices for oats would not be as low as previously expected caused a rally in futures of that grain.

Clothing Drive Response Praised

Response to the five-day clothing drive organized for the relief of the civilian population of liberated Italy has been exceptionally good, local committee chairmen of the War Relief Services reported today. The collection started Tuesday and continued through Saturday. The sorting and packing will be done the first of this week, drive workers said.

All of the clothing donated has been of an exceptionally good quality and includes wearing apparel for men, women and children. The articles are being taken to the cafeteria room of St. Mary's school and the chairmen today said that almost all tables were piled full.

The city was divided into four districts with the following chairmen in charge of their section: Joseph Sansotta, North Side; Ross Nicolosi, East Side; Peter Cutarelli, West Side, and Emmanuel Pruzzo, South Side.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

I LAUGHED heartily at my future mother-in-law's use of her grandson's "slanguage," and she gave me back a grim little smile.

"I mean it," she said dignifiedly.

"I know you do, Mother," I told her, "and I shall come in here as soon as I come downstairs again. I promise you. And now, I must hurry."

Boys Reproachful

"Good luck to you!" she apostrophized, as I went out to meet the reproachful eyes of Junior and Roderick, who obviously held themselves personally responsible for getting me back to the secret chamber in record time.

"We thought you'd never come out, Mama," Junior said.

"But I'm here now!" I said, smiling at him. "Now let's go down and reassure Jim and Katie. We'll go to the library and get Jim first."

"Did the gong ring all right?" Roderick asked as they both came close to me.

"Perfectly, Grannie says. Yet it didn't waken Faith."

"It would take an earthquake to waken that child," Junior said, so importantly that I caught back a grin with difficulty, and going through the hall quickly, we opened the library door to find Jim sitting as if completely tagged out in an armchair near the door.

He sprang to his feet as we entered, and I put my question quickly to hide his confusion.

"Did the gong ring, Jim?"

Gong Rang Clear

"Yes, ma'am, real clear and loud. It rang nine rings, three rings at a time."

"Then the mechanism works perfectly," I told him. "Thank you so much for listening. Come with us. Now we'll go and ask Katie."

But Katie needed neither question nor summons. As we came out of the library, she burst out of the kitchen, free, as at all times, from any inhibitions concerning the proper behavior of domestic service.

"Say, vot you know!" she exclaimed. "Dot gong she ring so-o-loud in dere—I'll bet shoost as loud as it did in library vere eet cooms in from secret chamber. Did dot Jeem take oudt books from in front of eet in bookcase vere it hides?"

She spoke, as she invariably does, as her husband were not present when she inquired about his actions. But Jim, accepting this as placidly, and with the same unwavering devotion which he always accords his tempestuous but lovable wife, replied categorically in his deliberate accents:

Took Out No Books

"No, I didn't take out any books. That gong is supposed to ring from behind the books, so that anybody will know where the ring comes from. If it does ring, it always can be explained that the boys rang the farm fire alarm system by mistake."

"Hey! What is this?" Roderick demanded indignantly, but I sent him a quelling look and he subsided. But not Katie. She glared angrily at her husband.

"Al-ways picking on dose poor leetle boys!" she said, not noticing that both lads were positively bristling with resentment at her characterization of them. "Eef farm alarm ring by mistake, eet because you poor feesh ring eet yourself, not my leetle boys."

It seemed politic to get the boys away from there as soon as possible, and I hurried through my explanation.

May Go to Bed

"Katie, you may go on to bed if you wish. But I must ask you, Jim, to stay awake down here until the boys and I come back from the secret chamber. You see, 'Mr. X,' Charlie Kent and Jerry Tiger just came there through the secret passage, and they have important news which I have to go back to hear. And the boys have to take me through the attic and back down here again."

Katie flopped down on the nearest chair, squared her shoulders, and folded her arms belligerently.

"You tink I go to bed vod leaf dot Jeem to hear all de news, und den tell eet to me second-hand? Vell, if you tink dot—"

Jim's voice sounded in a tone which he rarely uses to Katie, but which she always heeds.

"Shut your mouth," he said, "before you say something to fourth you'll be ashamed of it."

I left the kitchen hastily, with the two boys close behind me. But it was not until we reached the little chair that Junior spoke.

"Gee, Mama, Katie's an awful fool, and I'd like to cram that beetle boy stuff down her throat. But I can't blame her for not wanting to go to bed yet. I'll bet there's something terrific waiting for us in the secret room."

YOUR HEALTH

BY LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Dyspepsia Cause

The term "dyspepsia" denotes not a diagnosis, but a group of symptoms related to digestion for which a cause or cause usually a group of causes must be sought by the scientific physician. The symptom groups may mask a major disease, such as tuberculoses, anemia or gallbladder infection. Only after all such possibilities have been eliminated is the diagnostician justified in calling the case of indigestion before him minor or functional.

The symptoms described by the dyspeptic are in the order of frequency - fullness in the stomach or gassy region, in the vulgate called bloating, then belching and flatulence and gassy accumulation feeling generally, then heartburn or acid eructations into the mouth, anorexia, or absence of appetite and least frequent of all, nausea and vomiting.

Now all of these symptoms are primarily reflex. A reflex is an impulse that originates at some point of irritability and goes through the nervous system and is there relayed to some system of organs and there interpreted as a symptom indicating to the subject a disorder of the system of organs that is exhibiting the symptom.

The system of organs which most commonly exhibit symptoms are the muscular system producing the symptom fatigue, the heart and circulatory system producing the symptoms of palpitation or breathlessness and the digestive system producing dyspepsia. Such symptoms presented to the astute diagnostician are merely an indication to him that he must find the real trouble, the point of irritation behind the symptom.

Most often in the case of dyspepsia it is not exactly a disease such as gallstones, but a maladjustment or frustration in life. A fellow wants to paint like Rembrandt, but has to be content with interior decorating. Or a gal would like to write a great novel, but all she attains is writing up the household accounts. Or he yearns for a divine creature named Guinevere, but he gets one named Piety, or she visualizes life with Gary Cooper, but has to spend it with Albert, the popular insurance salesman. We can't all write a Gone With The Wind, but we can all take pepsin tablets. We can't all be geniuses, but we can all be dyspeptics. That is why it is so common.

It is not remarkable then that in the great army of dyspeptics there are so many of these dissatisfied, dreaming, impractical people. Thank heaven for the great army of plodding, unimaginative hewers of wood and drawers of water, those who cheerfully do the leg work of the world, who can eat anything, who are proud of their stomachs and bowels, or who never knew they had a stomach, those who think that soda is used only in baking, and believe Cascara is a town in Italy that Montgomery's Eighth army just failed to take.

If these considerations are true it would seem inevitable that the first and most important method of treatment for functional dyspepsia is psychotherapy. It need not be an elaborate Freudian psychoanalysis, in fact better not be, but can consist of simple explanation. Much of an internist's time is spent convincing some unhappy individuals that just because they are full of gas it doesn't mean they are going to float up to heaven.

Take the symptom of heartburn. It is caused by the hydrochloric acid in the stomach regurgitating into the esophagus. There is probably immediately behind it an increased secretion of the normal hydrochloric acid in the stomach and the secretion of hydrochloric acid is controlled by nervous impulses. So then, what have been the unusual nervous impulses in your life lately that caused this secretion? By talking things out in this way many dyspeptic symptoms calm down.
